

M3: OUDS MEETING

APOLOGIES: Jack Bradfield, Conor Jordan, Adam Diaper

PRESENT: Georgia Figgis, Eil Potter, Charlotte Vickers, Georgie Murphy, Catriona Bolt, Alex Newton, Ros Ballaster, Christopher White, Charles Pidgeon, James Tibbles, Josh Blunsden, Beth Evans, Mischa Andreski

1. Freshers' drinks feedback
2. Cuppers
3. Change to Constitution (James)
4. NWF (Mischa) – we need to bid
5. The Nether
6. Diversity survey (Alex) – Can we make a change to the contract? + Diversity drinks

FUNDING DECISIONS:

A Woman Killed with Kindness

£75, £100 risk support

The Trojan Women

£80, £400 risk support

9 FOR, 1 ABSENTION

R&J

£250 up-front, £250 risk support (31% investment) – Will vote at a later date online.

ACTION POINT: Vote as a poll on Facebook.

1) Fresher's Drinks

- a. It was generally successful. It could have been better-attended.
- b. Next time we will limit the time that shows have and give them less time. Performance then a break, performance then a break. We will be stricter with performances and make sure they're representing OUDS.

2) Cuppers

- a. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday with Friday free. Eil and Georgia did a really great job of organising the schedule. Techs are on Monday with 2 on Sunday.
- b. Georgia and Eil will send emails to each group.
- c. After party will be SIIIIICK.

ACTION POINT: Eil and Georgia update technical form in correspondence with Rafi.

ACTION POINT: Eil and Georgia will create a doodle poll by Friday.

ACTION POINT: Josh, Eil and Georgia to discuss and send email to college reps.

3) Changes to constitution

- a. We need to change the constitution according to the university's new standard constitution.

ACTION POINT: Cuppers will double up as an Extraordinary General Meeting.

4) NWF:

- a. We are going to change the application process for directors by asking them to pitch Romeo and Juliet.
- b. Instead of monologues we are going to accept single scenes, which will form an opening gala.
- c. The call for director will go out this week.
- d. Writing deadline is end of 9th.
- e. 2 set designers, 1 lighting and 1 sound.
- f. We will have a form on which people can indicate what they're interested in auditioning for (according to time commitment etc.)
- g. Ros and Sos can help!

ACTION POINT: Everyone think about who we can asked to judge the competition.

ACTION POINT: Cat and Mischa to update NWF info for website.

5) The Nether:

- a. The Nether is struggling with ticket sales and we need to support them.

ACTION POINT: Everyone needs to find 5 friends who aren't involved with drama to go and watch the opening night of The Nether. Find friends by WEDNESDAY! Everyone share The Nether at 8pm on Wednesday.

6) Diversity Survey:

- a. We want the survey to become part of the producer's job to get cast to fill in the survey. Can we introduce a clause into the contract?
- b. Diversity drinks: we should make OUDS an associate that helps other societies. We should take the English Society as a good example who collaborated with LGBT society.

ACTION POINT: Charles will update the contract and send it around to the committee.

ACTION POINT: Alex will post the newsletter in OUDS events every week.

COMPS:

Death Grip, Guys and Dolls, Woman Killed with Kindness (James to post on Facebook page)